Senior AI Product Leader

Paris, France | mohsen@ahmadi.pm | linkedin.com/in/ahmadidotpm | ahmadi.pm

Profile

Product leader and hands-on AI builder with more than ten years in product leadership, crisis delivery, team transformation, and multilingual retrieval systems. Translates business goals into technically credible products, interrogates architecture and failure modes, and leads cross-functional teams through high-pressure delivery. Open to Senior AI Product Manager and AI Product Lead roles in Paris and remote.

Selected impact

- Directed an emergency banking PWA response after mobile apps for 40M+ users were removed from app stores: restored five critical flows in seven days, reached full parity within three months, and achieved 74% customer satisfaction.
- Built AsterixLab, a live multilingual legal RAG product covering 203,427 French legal records in eight languages; designed two-pass chunking and resolved five production retrieval failure modes.
- Restructured a struggling 25-person product and engineering group into four focused teams; raised sprint-goal completion to 86% and retrospective participation from 3% to 96.5% in six months.
- Mentored more than 35 startups and founders across product strategy, discovery, roadmaps, delivery, and go-to-market decisions.
